

Advanced Leadership

This demanding and challenging 5 day course is designed to provide teaching and experience for managers with leadership experience. The course develops ability to lead through change, manage people and increase productivity.

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS SAY

"By being in a remote outdoor environment like Skye it really allowed the course to push people to their limits within the knowledge that all the activities were delivered to the highest safety standards.

You showed phenomenal judgement in pushing us to the furthest points of our limits..."

Michele MacNaughton, BG

Outcomes

At the end of this course delegates will be better equipped to:

- Lead through change
- Build trust
- Deal effectively with conflict
- Motivate teams and individuals
- Handle criticism
- Increase sustainable productivity
- Develop creative problem solving strategies.

Course Methodology

The first two days of this course combines solid classroom teaching with powerful exercises enabling teaching to be put into practice. The final three days consist of an intense and complex exercise requiring the full remit of taught skills to be employed.

Detailed evaluations of the exercises provide leaders with the opportunity to implement what they have learned and develop an effective style of leadership. The results are based on experience, rather than just theory.

The final demanding exercise provides significant challenge for good leadership in the areas of logistics and organisation, overcoming challenge, dealing with change and people management.

Practical classroom teaching combined with exciting opportunities to practise leadership in a safe environment.

Course Delivery

This course is delivered for in-house groups of 6 – 24 participants.

RRI can deliver throughout Europe, The Middle East and Central Asia from its hub offices. Training can either be on-site at your company's training facility, or we can recommend suitable conference facilities nearby.

Red Rock International customises the content and exercises to match the development objectives of the group. Customised workbooks and presentations adopt your corporate values to give an in-house feel to the course.
